From the Editor

I am sure you have noticed that the Martin Family Quarterly is slightly smaller in size than Volumes I-III. We will continue to keep this size for all subsequent volumes of the quarterly. We will have exactly the same amount of information in each issue as we had before, but at a more economical cost. Volume IV will include 112 pages just as Vol. III did.

When we reach 500 subscribers we can bring you 36 pages per issue or 144 pages a year instead of the present 112. I hope this can be done by Vol. VI.

Every effort is being made to answer your queries and letters in the quarterly. All other letters will be answered as soon as possible.

We will begin to publish family photographs this volume and I urge you to submit photographs of your Martin ancestors. Snapshots can't be reproduced well (nor color photos), but any size portrait photograph can be used. Every subscriber may submit one photo. When everyone has had a chance at one photo then we will take additional ones. I can copy any size photo free of charge and return the original to you. If you don't trust the mails with them then send a copy of the original - which can't be returned.

We would prefer photos taken before 1900 or an ancestor who was born prior to 1860. Let's try this and see how it works.

John Martin

Revolutionary Soldier

and some of his descendants

[The only documented evidence between this John Martin and the James Martin family in Vol. III, #4, pages 86-89 seems to be on the Lewis side. Elizabeth Lewis, who married John Martin, was the daughter of David Lewis, Sr. and his third wife, Mary McGrath, the widow Hart. David Lewis, Sr. was born about 1685 in the portion of New Kent Co., Va. that became Hanover County. His will was written 21 Oct. 1778 and proved at Sept. term, 1779, Albemarle Co., Va. His first wife was Anna Terrell. Elizabeth and John Martin are named in the will. This Lewis family was treated in depth in Genealogy of the Lewis Family in America by William Terrell Lewis of Perryville, Winston Co., Miss. and published in 1893 in Louisville, Ky.].

THIS GENEALOGY WAS COMPILED BY MARY K. BARNARD, POLO, MO.

WITH NOTES ADDED BY PATTIE EICHHOLZ, MERCED, CALIF.

[John Martin is the progenitor (or earliest documented ancestor) of this family and is Generation 1. His children are generation 2 and his grandchildren are generation 3. Each person is identified with a generation number indicating his relationship to John Martin. This number is a raised number in the bold headings. Example:

Samuel Taylor Martin^{3} (Samuel Davis^{2}) (John^{1})

The children of each person are listed in columnar form preceded by small Roman numerals. An Arabic numeral is placed in front of the Roman numeral for each child whose line is carried forward. When a person has a number look forward in the genealogy for the number assigned to see additional information on that child].

The numbers in brackets throughout the genealogy are footnotes which refer to references at the end.

1. JOHN MARTIN^{1}

born 20 March 1749 [1], Albemarle Co., Va. He was the son of Thomas Martin, (b. 1714 [1]; d. 1792 [1] Albemarle Co., Va.) and Ann Moorman, and the grandson of John Martin, (b. ca. 1680 [1]). He married 1775 [2] Elizabeth Lewis, b. 1754 [2] Albemarle Co., Va.; d. 1838 [3] Clark Co., Ky., daughter of David Lewis. He served in the Revolutionary War as a Minute Man. In 1775 he enlisted in the United States Army and during the war performed six tours of duty.

The first tour was when Governor Dunmore removed the powder from one of his majesty's (King George, the third) ships. He was ordered to Williamsburg under Captain Nicholas Lewis of Albemarle Co., Va. and was first orderly-sergeant in the company. The time was eleven days.

The second tour was in 1775 under the command of Captain Gilmore when Governor Dunmore offered freedom to all slaves that would repair on board his majesty's ships. The tour was to Williamsburg and the time was one month and five days.

The third tour was for two months at the Barracks in Albemarle Co., Va. for the purpose of guarding the British prisoners. During the tour he was Captain of a company of militia in the regiment commanded by Col. Francis Taylor.

The fourth tour was when he had received orders from General Wood to carry the Barracks prisoners, two hundred in number, from the Barracks in Albemarle Co. to Frederick, Md. Eleven baggage wagons were needed to move them. The time was twenty-one days or more. During this tour he paid his own expenses and never received any compensation.

The fifth tour was at Charlottesville where the British under the command of Tarlton routed the assembly. He received orders from Gov. Jefferson to order the militia to Charlottesville. While the assembly was debating whether they would supply his men with arms and ammunition, the British destroyed their arms. When the men found they could not get arms, they went home. Captain Martin remained at the River until the British came when he made his escape. This tour lasted nine days.

The sixth tour was at the siege of York in the regiment commanded by Col. Richardson. He was given the command of a battalion and promoted to major. He served in this position two months. The tour lasted three months and three days.

He was in actual service about seven months and twenty-five days. He served as an orderly-sergeant one month and sixteen days, two months as major, and the remainder of the time as a captain.

On the 25th day of September 1832, John Martin, age 83 in March 1832, appeared in open court in Clark Co., Ky. before Hon. Richard French. He made a declaration about his service in the Revolutionary War in order to obtain a pension made possible by an act passed by Congress June 7th 1832. A pension was granted at the rate of $127.83 per year to commence on the 4th day of March 1834. The pension number was S 30563.

John Martin moved to Kentucky in 1784 [1] and was the first sheriff of Clark County. He died 3 Dec. 1837 [1] Clark Co., Ky. He and his wife are buried in the Martin Cemetery [3] near Winchester, Ky.

1850-TEXAS

In 1836 the province of Texas gained independence from Mexico and became the Republic of Texas. Most of the population at that time was confined to the area bordering the state of Louisiana and along the rivers that flowed into the Gulf of Mexico. In 1841 due to the work of Gov. Sam Houston the Peter's Colony was begun. This colony encouraged settlement from other states by giving land grants to families who would settle in the northern portion of the republic. By 1846 1,800 families had settled in Texas under these land grants. Heads of families with a * were included in the 1846 poll tax list.
